THE LOCAL POLITICAL CANVASS. PROBABLE CANDIDATES ON THE TAMMANY TICKET-THE OPPOSITION HOPING TO FORM A COMBINA-TION-QUALIFICATIONS OF VOTERS-THE FIRS

DAY OF REGISTRATION. The contest for nominations on the Tammany County and Judiciary tickets and in the various Benate, Assembly, Aldermanic and Civil Justice Districts. continues with unabated vigor. Several of the mino sepirants have been weeded out, however. For District-Attorney the only candidates remaining are Frederick A. Smythe and Peter B. Olney. The friends of each claim to be confident that their man will be nominated; but the chances are probably in favor of Mr. Olney, who has been an earnest Reformer. He is a law partner of ex-Attorney-General Barlow. It has been understood that the one who fails to receive the nomination for District-Attorney will be given that for Recorder. This would make Mr. Smythe the Recorder. Many leading Tammany men, however, hold that Re-corder Hackett is entitled to renomination, and that it would be bad policy to drop a man who has won reputation for the rigid enforcement of law, against the

For Surrogate, the person most strengly supported is D. C. Calvin. His friends assert that it is set: tled that he is to receive the nomination, althou Gen. M. T. McMahon and Civil Justice Alfred T. Ackert are still named for it. So is Judge Spene who probably has more strength than either. Mr. Redfield is also still in the field, though with diminished hopes among his friends. For City Judge, ex-Judge James C. Spencer is now less talked of, his efforts being transferred to the Surrogate's office. Ex-Judge Gunning 8. Bedford is more prominently in the field, and was understood at one time to have Gov. Tilden's approval for the position. There seems no reason to doubt that Judge Frederick W. Loew of the Court of Common Pleas and Judge John J. Freedman of the Superior Court will be renominated. No one has been named against them. Of the two Marine Court judges whose terms expire this year, Judge Michael C. Gross will probably be renominated, and there is a likelihood that Judge P. J. Josehimsen will fail of a renomination. The more promthose of James P. Sinnott and Alfred T. Ackert.

The Senate canvass is exciting a great deal of interest, for it is believed that in some districts, by combinations of all the outside organizations, the Tammany candidates can be defeated. There appears to be no reason to doubt that in the IVth District John Fox will receive the Tammany nomination, notwithstanding the opposition of the General Committee of the 1st District, headed by Nicholas Muller, himself a candidate for the nomination. It is not yet settled whether John Morrissey or James Hayes is to be the candidate of the opposition. Morrissey is strongly urged to run, as it is felt that he would make a stronger candidate than Hayes. In the Vth District Senator James W. Booth is almost certain to be the Republican candidate, and Sidney P. Nichols, one of the proprietors and third Street Stage Line, will be the candidate of Tammany Hall, although ex-Alderman James Barker is Cammany Hall, although ex-Alderman James Barker is also desirous of obtaining the nomination. In the Vith District the Tammany nomination is conceded to Assemblyman James Daly. His opponent on the opposition ticket is likely to be George Hencken, jr. In he VIIth District James W. Gerard, the well-mown lawyer, is most prominently named for the Lammany nomination, and George W. McGlynn and others are also mentioned. James Everard, he well-known contractor, will probably receive the Tanimany nomination, and George W. McGlynn and others are also mentioned. James Everard, the well-known contractor, will probably receive the combined Republican and anti-Tammany support, although there is some opposition to him in the latter organization. In the VIIIth District there is a strong contest for the Tammany nomination. Senator Hugh H. Moore has declared that he is not desirous of renomination; nevertheless, his friends have been actively working for him, and he now, it is understood, says he is in the hands of his friends, and will accept the nomination if tendered him. There are very many influential members of the Tammany organization who believe that Senator Moore cannot be reflected. They are pressing Everett P. Wheeler as the most eligible candidate, one who it is said would receive in addition to his party support the votes of very many independent voters, who could not be induced to give their suffrages for Moore. The name of Barton W. Van Voorbis, a large iron manufacture, is also presented as that of a candidate who would worthly represent the district if elected. The Republican candidate will probably be ex-Mayor Opdyke, who would receive, it is claimed, a large vote, and in case two Democrats were in the field would have a very good prospect of being elected.

Et is now deemed more than probable that all the Tam-two Democrats were in the field would have a very good prospect of being elected.

Eli is now deemed more than probable that all the Tammany Aldermen-at-Large, comprising President Samuel A. Lowis and Messers. Cole, Guntzer, and Gross, will be renominated. There was a strong probability at one time that Aldermen John Heilley and Henry D. Purroy would be among those nominated for Aldermen-at-Large on the Tammany ticket. It is now deemed better for them to run in their respective districts, where, it is understood, they will find no difficulty in securing renomination, and by so doing, strengthen the county ticket.

On the part of the opposition to Tammany Hall nothing On the part of the opposition to Tammany Hall nothing secms to have yet been positively decided upon. There will probably be committees of conference appointed to represent the various organizations, and these will meet to discuss the possibility of agreeing upon combination County and Judiciary tickets. Consequently the names of candidates are not brought prominently forward, as yet. Men who have political strength in their respective districts prefer to wait and see what are the hopes of forming a strong coalition before allowing their names to be announced as possible candidates for noninations of any kind. Experienced politicians do not propose to undergo the expense and announce to which they are subjected as candidates unless there is a fair chance for their election.

To-day is the first day of registration. The places for registering will be open from 8 a. m. until 9 p. m. There will be three additional days of registration-Wednesday Oct. 13: Friday, Oct. 22, and Saturday, Oct. 23. No per son can vote unless his name has been registered according to law. A person entitled to register and vote must be 21 years of age and a citizen, either native or naturalized; if naturalized, his naturalization must have taken place at least ten days prior to the election. He must be a resident of the election district in which he offers his vote. He must have been a resident of the State during the year preceding the election, of the county four months, and the election district thirty days. Previous conviction of bribery, or of an infanous crime deemed a felony by the laws of the State, is a disqualification unless the person convicted has been pardoued and restored to all the rights of a citizen. Making any bet upon the election or being directly or indirectly interested in any wager pending upon the result are also disqualifications. The person offering to vote must have been duly registered according to law as a qualified voter. Any qualified voter may challenge the right of any person to be registered, or may require the name of any registered person to be marked for challenge, and shall be entitled to be heard by the Inspectors of Election in any election district in relation to correction of or additions to the registers. son can vote unless his name has been registered accord-

NEWARK CITY POLITICS.

Republican primaries were held in all the wards of Newark except the Eighth and Fifteenth last evening, to elect delegates to the City Convention, to be held to-night. The principal topic in political circles is in regard to the Republican nomination for Mayor against Andrew A. Smalley. Only three names are prominently mentioned-Aldermen Sudlow, Yates, and Johnson. It is thought that the latter will be the compromise candiis thought that the latter will be the compromise candidate between the factions. J. S. Smalley has been nominated for Alderman by the Democrats of the Sixth Ward, and the Democrats of the Eleventh Ward have renominated Joseph Periam, a telier in the Park National Bank of New-York. Alderman Westervelt of the Tenth Ward. President of the Council, declines a renomination by the Democrate. W. E. Pine of the Pirst Ward will probably succeed him in the chair.

ANTI-TAMMANY LOCAL CONVENTIONS.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the anti-Tammany County Committee, held at the Everett House last evening, the following dates for holding Conventions were appointed: For the nomination of city, county, and judicial officers and Aldermen at Large, Oct. 11; the Senate Conventions, Oct. 16; Conventions for the nomination of Civil Justices, Oct. 18; Aldermen, Oct. 19; Assemblymen, Oct. 30. The primaries will be bed on Saturday evening next. It was decided that, in case of contested seats in the Thirteenth Ward, the delegation hended by Joseph Egan be recommended to the Convention, and that Robert N. Waite, John Selp, and Michael Larkin be received as members of the Executive Committee. The County Committee will meet at Irving

HEARING OF THE ANTI-CUSTOM REPRESENTA TIVES.

The Sub-Committee of the Republican State Committee, ex-Judge Robertson of Westchester Chairman, will meet in Parior F, Pifth Avenue Hotel, at 9 a. m. to-day, and hear the grievances complained of by the persons comprising the anti-Custom-house organiza-tion, which led to their leaving the Thirty-third-st-erganization and forming a Republican committee in opposition to it.

REPUBLICAN ASSEMBLY DISTRICT MEETINGS At the meeting of the 1st Assembly District Republican Association, at No. 152 Franklin-st., last evening, it was resolved to hold a public meeting to ratify the State ticket, and a committee was appointed to make arrangements. At the meeting of the HIId Assembly District Association, at No. 205 Grand-st., and of the IXth Assembly District Association, at the Bleecker Bullding, resolutions were adopted approving the nominations made at Saratoga. The Association of the VIIth Assembly District, which met at No. 12 University-place, decided to hold weekly mass meetings, beginning on Thursday.

WORKINGMEN IN POLITICS.

MEETINGS OF LABORERS' ASSOCIATIONS-REDUCTION OF WAGES DENOUNCED-ALLEGIANCE TO TAM-MANY HALL DISAVOWED.

A meeting of the Workingmen's Association of the XVIIth Assembly District was held last evening at Temperance Hall, on Forty-third-st., be tween Eighth and Ninth-aves. ley acted as Chairman, and addressed the meeting. He urged unanimity of action on the part of the laboring classes, and denounced politicians generally. including the Mayor and others. He read resolutions, declaring that the cause of the stagnation in business was chiefly due to private and public extravagance and dishonesty, and that the remedy for these gance and dishonesty, and that the remedy for these evils must be found in a general reduction of extravarant expenditures, including the excessive salaries paid public officials, and not in the reduction of lacorers' wages; that the poor man's dollar is now worth only about 65 cents, and that the interests of the toiler and the business man were so closely allied that injury or injustice to one was sure to affect the other, and that both should therefore unite for mutual protection. The resolutions conclude by nominating for member of the Assembly for the XVIIth Assembly District, Col. Henry A. Gildersleeve. The resolutions were unanimously adopted. Another meeting will be held at the same place on Monday evening, when other nominations will probably be made.

adopted. Another meeting will be held at the same place on Monday evening, when other nominations will probably be made.

A meeting of the Workingmen's Democratic Association was held last evening at No. 287 Avenue B. About 100 persons were present. The meeting was called to order by James Coleman, who urged the importance of united effort in order to elect men who would carry out their wishes. Dr. R. P. Gibbons advised his audience to watch over the legislators and elect only their friends to any office in their gift. Charles Barron thought the Democratic party was dead, and that the workingmen ought not to approve the State ticket nominated at Syracuse. The leaders of the Democratic party had forsaken them. Therefore he thought it the duty of every workingman to vote independently for his own interests, and not to be led by any party. The leaders of Tammany Hall were mistaken if they thought the workingmen would support them. The workingmen should make a party of their own. Mr. Coleman then read some resolutions, expressing the determination of the Association to support Dr. Gibbons for the next Legislature.

ALGERNON 8. SULLIVAN ON REFORM.

At a meeting of the Political Reform Organization of the 1Xth Assembly District last evening, at Christopher and Hudson-sts., the Hon. Algernon 8. Sullivan delivered an address upon the rights, privileges, and moral obligations of voters, and upon the duties devolving upon them in the political campaign. He said, ing upon them in the political campaign. He said, among other things:

I come to address this Reform Association of the Ninth Ward because I desire we shall do all we can to secure a new Legislature thoroughly imbued with the spirit of reform, without regard to party lines. It will be double disgrace indeed if the Governor of this State shall say to its five millions of citizens: "Once more the Legislature of your selection obstructs the work of reform." For one, I say, although of decided Iparty convictions, I will vote for no man of my own party who is not heartily in unison with the spirit of reform as indicated by Gov. Tilden. I would rather vote for a Republican of sound principles. Associations like yours, made up of men of both parties, are very useful and influential in the existing condition of things.

It should occur to us that under a republican form of government, where each citizen is clothed with the primary governmental trust, the initial function which starts, shapes and administers every law, namely the right to vote, thereby he has an office, with duty, obligation and trust, corresponding to its unbounded power to benefit or injure community. Each citizen hould exercise the right of franchise as though himself the holder of a great office, since it makes its possessor a law-maker and a magistrate, so that to neglect this duty is a moral and political misdemeanor. The speaker expressed it as his belief that the sense of danger has awakened, and, thanks to a kind Heaven, a healthier public conscience is visibly awakening. The shackles of party spirit are loosening. The getting of wealth does not answer for lack of virtue in estimation of the people. Men demand purity in administration of public affairs. A sound public opinion is decemed better than partisan schemes. He urged upon the Association the necessity of fully realizing these facts, and enlarged upon their duties in the coming contest, which he characterized as another holy crusade. He declared that the bondage of party spirit should no

A COMMENT ON PRESIDENT GRANT'S SPEECH.

A meeting of the VIIth Assembly District Tammany Hall Democratic Committee was held last Major Haggerty and Gen. Martin T. McMahon made addresses on the duties of the Democratic party generally and of those in the VIIth Assembly District Grant's recent speech to the Army of the Tennessee as a fatal blunder. He was the last person, he said, to spefatal blinder. He was the last person, he cash, to spice against a person in mathority, but the man who predicted, as Gen. Grant did, a religious war in this country, must either be a fool or a hypocrite. And were there even reason to fear such a contest the President of the United States, as a statesman, ought to be the last person to pro-

MINING CONSPIRACY TRIAL.

THE DEFENSE OF SINEY AND PARKS-EVIDENCE

TENDING TO CLEAR THEM OF INCITING TO RIOT. CLEARFIELD, Penn., Oct. 4 .- At the trial of Siney, the Miners' National Union official, indicted for initing the Clearfield miners' riots, numerous witnesses for the defense, including some of the strikers, were examined. Their testimony tended to show that the men had been encouraged by the operators to ask for ten cents advance of wages, and that, when the reduction to fifty cents was made at the time of the panic, they agreed to pay the old rates when business im-proved; that the men complained of being cheated, in short weight, for coal mined by them; that Siney, on every occasion, advised the strikers to commit no breach of the peace, and that at the Goss to commit no breach of the peace, and that at the Goss-Run riot, instead of leading the crowd, he was several hundred yards distant from Capt. Clark's force when the crowd broke through it. It was also testified to that when Siney arrived and spoke at Moshannon, the men there had already quitted work, and that at other times he was defied and repudiated by the strikers as a man of peace, and one who had no business with them.

Similar evidence was given as to Parks, who was shown to have been in the region at the time the strike begun. Parks invariably spoke against it, asserting in his speeches that the purpose of the National Union was to prevent strikes by arbitration, and that as strikes were only to be resorted to when all other means of concillation had falled, this one could not be legalized, as it had been without sufficient provocation. Of the 1,200 miners of the region, 300 only were members of the Union.

THE ST. LOUIS AGRICULTURAL FAIR.

St. Louis, Oct. 4.-The fifteenth annual fair of the St. Louis Agricultural and Mechanical Association opened to-day. According to custom, the public school children were admitted free, and the grounds were thronged with them, there being at the show not less than 25,000 people in all. The horse show is unusually good. The cattle show is deficient. The machinery department is full, and there are acres of agricultural implements or the ground. Floral Hall contains an extensive display. Textile Hall is crowded. The Mechanical Hall is also filled to overflowing, and contains the largest and finest displays ever made here. Exhibitors are using two or three times as much space as formerly. The Fair is not on the whole fully up to the highest standard of former years, but in special features far exceeds it.

THE HORSE EPIDEMIC IN WASHINGTON.

Washington, Oct. 4.-The horse epidemic, while quite widely diffused here, does not seem likely to withdraw many horses from daily service, or to prove more than a temporary inconvenience to the animals Experienced hostlers say the disease is one which is often epidemic among horses at times when warm days are succeeded by cold nights, and that but for the late experience of the epizoofy it would not excite the slightest alarm. As yet only few horses have been prevented by the disease from working, although two-thirds of all in the city are attacked.

THE EPIZOOTY IN NEW-ENGLAND. Boston, Oct. 4 .- The first fatal case of the epizooty occurred here to-day. The disease has made its appearance among horses at Concord and Nashua.

THE REV. B. I. IVES ON TEMPERANCE. BUFFALO, N. Y., Oct. 4 .- The Rev. Benoni I. Ives, Republican candidate for State Prison Inspector, addressed the Annual Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church of Western New-York this evening upon the subject of Temperance. He favored prohibition at the cost of party.

RED CLOUD INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

THE MEETING IN THIS CITY DELAYED-VIEWS OF MR. HARRIS-A LONG REPORT TO BE MADE-ALL THE CHARGES TO BE CONSIDERED-DISCUSSION OF THE INDIAN SYSTEM-A PARTIAL USE OF THE ARMY LOOKED ON WITH SOME FAVOR.

The Red Cloud Investigating Committee did not meet yesterday at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, as expected. Messrs. Harris and Atherton were the only members who reached the city. Gov. Fletcher telegraphed from Pittsburgh that he was delayed by a railroad accident, and Mr. Faulkner sent word that daughter. Senator Howe is expected soon but it is not known certainly when he will come. Messrs. Harris and Atherton hope that the Committee will begin to-day their consultation regarding the conclusion drawn by each member from an examination of the testimony. The meetings of the Committee will be secret. and the report agreed upon will be transmitted to the Secretary of the Interior, and perhaps to the President, before its tenor or any extracts of it will be made public. Mr. Harris, in conversation with a TRIBUNE reporter, said, last evening: "Gov. Fletcher, Mr. Faulkner, and myself were appointed by the Secretary of the Interior to investigate the charges which had been made against the Indian Bureau. Mr. Atherton and Senator Howe were appointed by the President and have cooperated with us. It is proper for us to make our report to the authority by which we were instructed to examine and report, and if the members appointed by the President desire it a report will probably be transmitted to him at the same time. We have endeavored, as far as we were able, to discover the bearing of the testimony on every point referred to by Prof. Marsh. All the charges regarding the various con tracts-pork, flour, transportation, beef, sugar, tobacco, and others-will be considered in the report, which wil necessarily be long, if justice is done to the subject, and we shall seek not only to omit no general or specific charge of Prof. Marsh, but to consider all collateral questions. We understand well that we are liable to omit some matters, because we are unable to cover every conceivable subject involved in the inquery. The action of the Department with reference to the frauds alleged will be considered, and the system in use in furnishing supplies to the Indians discussed, and where in our judgment improvements can be made, they will be suggested. What recommendations will be made I cannot say, but it is a matter of discussion in the Committee whether or not a portion of the military machinery might not be employed to advantage in the pur chinery might not be employed to advantage in the purchase, transportation, and delivery of Indian supplies at the agencies. The members of the Committee have not expressed their views on this subject, and it would be unsafe to announce a conclusion yet to be reached. We are now supporting a military camp at Red Cloud and Whitestone Agencies, and the officers stationed there might, perhaps, be profitably employed in oversecing the transportation and delivery of goods, and in inspecting and passing upon their quality, in accordance with military methods. A military officer, acting under orders from his superior and amenable to military law, would have less opportunity or inducement to cheat than another person. Some of the Committee think that it may be practicable to make use of the military gentlemen in this way."

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY.

OPENING OF THE INSTITUTION-ADDRESSES BY GOV. PORTER, DR. DEEMS, AND CHANCELLOR LIPSCOMB. NASHVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 4.—The Vanderbilt University was opened to-day. Sermons were preached yesterday by Bishops Daggett and Wightman, and today addresses were delivered by the Rev. Dr. Deems of New-York, and Chancellor Lipscomb of Georgia, pre-ceded by remarks by Gov. Porter of Tennessee. Addressing himself to the Faculty and Trustees of the Uni-dressing himself to the Faculty and Trustees of the University, the Governor said:

No event of this kind has awakened more of popular sympathy in the South, and especially in Tennessee, than the opening of this University. At the laying of the consumers of this magnificent building my predecessor was here, and gave force to the sentiments of his constituents and I am here to-day to repeat the expression of satisfaction, common to the people of Tennessee, at the location of a great university at the capital of their State and to extend to you, the dignitaries of the contents to the respective of the sentiments of the contents of the capital of their State and to extend to you, the dignitaries of the contents to the nessee. A LOTTERY FRAUD.

THE MONTPELIER LOTTERY IN VIRGINIA THE ENTER-

PRISE OF NEW-YORK SHARPERS. ALEXANDRIA, Va., Oct. 4 .- After the drawing of the Montpeller Femule Humane Association Lottery last Friday, a committee was formed to examine the remaining tickets. The wheel had been closed and sealed, and deposited for safe-keeping in the room of the Association. As soon as the wheel was seen it was apparent that at least a bushel of brass tubes containing tickets had been put in since the drawing, though the scal was unbroken that had been put upon it publicly. The scal was that of the butt-end of a knife and a current gold coln. It was then discovered that the arrangement of the drawing had been intrusted solely to persons from New-York, and that all the ticket money except some $6,000 or $8,000 had been left in New-York, and was not sub ject to a draft of the officers of the Association. A committee was appointed to proceed at once to New-York, to recover the money. There is great excitement in conse quence of the discovery. It is believed that not a single dollar was drawn by any bona fide ticket-holder, but that the whole of it has been retained by New-York sharpers. About $500,000 worth of tickets were in this

The Paris journal Le Temps published on the 22d dit the account of a recent interview of M. Thiers with one of the editors of that paper. M. Thiers expressed himself convinced that the European Powers are desirens of maintaining peace, and that they are generally favorably inclined toward France, mentioning in turn England, Italy, Austria, and Russia. He again referred to the Clerical movement as the dark point in the horizon which seemed to carry away France, and thus made an unfavorable impression upon the foreign Cabinets. He believed, however, that the ministry would be able to check the movement, and smooth over any difficulties which might arise therefrom. Another dark point, he said, was in the East; but he hoped that Prince Mian would have energy eneugh, and the Skuptschina sufficient political sense, not to further complicate the question. He added that Prince Gortschakoff's presence in Switzerland was a sign that he had no fear of an unfavorable result. Speaking of the internal condition of France, he said that he believed it to be good, and that the elections would probably be held before the spring. He repeated that, on account of special circumstances, he was favorable to the scrutin delaste (voting by departments) as a means of cliciting a strong expression of public opinion which would retair the opponents of the Constitution powerless. However, he was certain that the verdict of France would be favorable to the Conservatives and the results of the election satisfactory. He added that he would not seek for the suffrages of his fellow-citizens, but would accept the mandate that they might confide to him. At his age he only thought of preparing for death. He continued: "Although I have been one of the most active men of this century and am still in possession of my faculties, I feet the want of rest; I am weary. The hour of retirement has struck. ATTEMPTED DUEL BY CUBANS.

MEETING WITH PISTOLS IN PROSPECT PARK PRE-VENTED BY THE POLICE-AN UNPAID DEBT THE CAUSE OF THE QUARREL. An attempt of two Cuban residents of Brook-

yn to fight a duel in Prospect Park last evening was promptly checked by the police. The would-be duelists were Marc E. Rodriguez of No. 61 President-et., and Rafael Toledo of No. 337 Smith-st. It appeared that Rodriguez, who is a carpenter by trade, ad lent Toledo $150 a short time since, to enable the latter to start in business as a cigar maker. Toledo was to repay the amount in installments. His neglect to meet the first of these payments provoked ill-feeling on the part of Rodriguez. On Sunday night the two men met at Toledo's house, and from angry words soon proceeded to blows. They were prevailed on to stop by some friends who were present. They met again last evening at the same place, and after a bitter quarrel, resolved to settle the matter by a duel in Pros-pect Park at 9 p. m. Rodrigues had a five-barraled year.

FALL RIVER FACTORIES.

AN EXCESS OF HELP.

EVERY MILL RUNNING-ONE HUNDRED OF THE OLD SPINNERS UNABLE TO FIND PLACES-UNAVAILING [BY TELEGRAPH TO THE TRIBUNE.]

FALL RIVER, Mass., Oct. 4.—The manufacturers have won, and to-day every mill is running with one exception, the Montauk, which is a bagging mill, and which has shut down on account of inability to sell its goods. At an early hour the operatives began to assemble about the mills, and the superintendents were kept very busy in preparing the agreement for them to sign. Many workers were so anxious to go to work that they went to the mills on Saturday, and, after signing the agreement, went inside to oil up their looms, &c., in order to start early this morning. Nearly every mill has all the help it wants, except in a few departments, which could easily have been filled to-day as far as numbers are concerned. But in view of the mill-owners being bliged to give two weeks' notice to operatives in case they do not prove efficient workmen, the superintendent picked out the best among those applying and allowed the others to depart. It has been a noticeable fact that the spinning departments have been obliged to refuse work to about 100 of the old operatives, others having come from abroad last week, securing the places. The spinners, it will be remembered, have been most instrumental in continuing the strike, owing to the unity existing among them. Of course, there is no sympathy expressed for them. Others also will be obliged to leave the city. At many of the mills to-day, women and girls were seen in tears when informed that their places

ART-STUDENTS' LEAGUE. An Art Students' League for the study of life models has been formed by advanced students of the National Academy of Design and a number of young artists who have studies of their own. Each member of the League has submitted a drawing from the an-tique or life to Prof. L. E. Wilmarth, who superintends gratuitously the work of the classes. Arrangements have been made for a morning and evening class for gentlemen, and an afternoon class for ladies. They meet at No. 108 Fifth-ave., and the cost to the student will be regulated by the actual expense for models, fuel, gas, etc. The necessity for this organization, as stated by Prof. Wilmarth, arises from the fact that a study of life models is possible in the Academy for only three days of the week, and after the term is well advanced. Every student entering the Academy is required to begin his ctudies with the lowest class, and work his way up. This keeps away artists who desire to continue their studies. The League corresponds in character to numerous erganizations of art students in Paris, and will meet to-day for the first time, and consists of about 75 members. Arrangements have been made for a morning and even

WASHINGTON.

CURRENT TOPICS AT THE CAPITAL. AN ACT OF JUSTICE TO INDIAN VOLUNTEERS.

WASHINGTON, Monday, Oct. 4, 1875. Ever since the late war, a great number of pension cases have been suspended in the Indian Territory, where three regiments of Cherokees were recruited for the Union army. The Indian claimants have labored under great disadvantages from their ignorance of the steps necessary to secure a pension, and on account of the outrageous manner in which they are generally swindled by agents and attorneys to whom they trust their business. With the view of making an early settlement of these old claims, Acting Secretary Cowen detailed to-day one clerk from the Indian Office, and one from the Pension Office, to visit the Indian Territory and make a thorough examination of them all. It is his intention to have them all carefully investigated and classified, so that they may be presented to Congress for its action during the approaching session. There are, it is said, 1,100 Cherokee Union soldiers entitled to pensions.

At the Senator's instance, mail service in Oregon was to-day ordered on the route from Antelope Valley, via John Day's River, Butte Creek, Lone Rock, and Willow Creek to Hepness, and also on the route from Hot Springs via Crooked Creek, Chewancan, and Summer Lake, to Silver City.
